

ARGENTINE RESTAURANT

Bar Vasquez to Host First YouthWorks Benefit

WHEN:

Sunday, November 13, 2016
3:00pm-7:00pm

Join Tony Foreman, Chef Cindy Wolf, Baltimore business leaders, professional athletes and other influencers in celebrating YouthWorks, Mayor Stephanie Rawlings Blake and Baltimore City's summer jobs program for residents between the ages of 14 and 21. A casual cocktail reception featuring exquisite Argentine hors d'oeuvres, food stations, open bar, and a silent auction will be accompanied by live music by Pavel Urkiza & Co. 100% of proceeds will be donated to YouthWorks.

About YouthWorks

YouthWorks is Baltimore City's summer jobs program for youth and young adults. Each year through YouthWorks, the Mayor's Office of Employment Development connects 14-21-year-olds to meaningful summer work experiences throughout the Baltimore City region. Participants work for five weeks in a wide variety of industries, including health care, hospitality/tourism, finance, construction, the arts, and environmental/green jobs. For two consecutive years, 2015-2016, YouthWorks offered summer jobs to more than 8,000 youth at 900 worksite locations and is one of the most successful and enduring summer jobs programs in the nation.

Bar Vasquez

The restaurant pays homage to Chef Cindy Wolf's mentor, Chef Marcelo Vasquez, originally from Argentina. Bar Vasquez celebrates the vibrancy and energy of Buenos Aires and reflects the Argentine love meat and seasonal natural ingredients of the Americas in the menu. Surround yourself with the whim of the bar & lounge or the romance and business of the formal dining room upstairs, all amplified by the live music performed by passionate and talented musicians that will keep a crackle of energy in the space.
